Nick Schnebelen (pronounced Sch-neh-belen)

Nick Schnebelen, Blues Music Award Winner has a new record, “Crazy All By Myself”, national release March 1, 2019, on VizzTone Label Group, produced by Grammy and Blues Music Award winner - Tony Braunagel (Taj Mahal, Robert Cray), and backed on this record by Taj Mahal’s Phantom Blues Band. A rising star & founding member of the award winning, popular blues group “Trampled Under Foot”, Nick is taking the world by storm with his high energy Rock n Blues. Nick tours North America, Europe, performing at festivals, venues, and as a fan favorite on the annual Legendary Blues Cruise. In 2008, as a member of Trampled Under Foot blues band, Nick received The Albert King Award for “Best Guitarist”. In 2014, Trampled Under Foot won the Blues Music Award for “Contemporary Blues Album of the Year”, by voting members of The Blues Foundation in Memphis, TN. The Nick Schnebelen “Crazy All By Myself Tour” is now in full swing for 2019, with opening dates for George Thorogood, extended tours for North America on the West Coast, Northeast, Midwest, Southeast USA & Europe. At the backbone of this power group is one of the best rhythm sections touring today; Cliff Moore -Electric bass (Michael Burkes) and Adam Hagerman -drums (Hadden Sayers, James Harmon, Smokin’ Joe Kubek), and recently now on Keys/Saxophone – Jay Davidson, supporting Nick who has built a reputation as a killer lead guitar player and impassioned vocalist. Longtime friend and famous keyboard player, Mike Finnigan (Taj Mahal, Jimi Hendrix. Etc.) will join Nick and band on West Coast dates in 2019.

-PRESS-

Nick Schnebelen - "Crazy All By Myself " – Vizztone Label Group

Crazy All By Myself makes for an uncompromising hour of massive, blues-based grooves. Schnebelen presents two contrasting but well-blended images of himself. For "It Ain't Me," he snarls out the lyrics, pulling hard on his guitar while riding the band's fat bottom, anchored here by the bass of the great Reggie McBride. The funky soul of it brings to mind Doyle Bramhall II and his work in the Arc Angels. But when the rockabilly-driven "Ain't Got Time for The Blues" hits the bricks, the stylishness of early Tommy Castro gleams, coinciding with the chic photo on the album's cover. Elmore Magazine, Tom Clarke

March 1 - New Release - "Crazy All By Myself "

"Nick Schnebelen has been responsible for great music his entire life, As such, we'd expect nothing less on his solo debut, "Crazy All By Myself," which solidifies him as one of the premier artists in all of contemporary blues!"

Sheryl and Don Crow, The Nashville Blues And Roots Alliance.

Nick Schnebelen - Crazy All By Myself - Vizztone Label Group

"Schnebelen once again teamed with Tony Braunagel. The studio band includes Schnebelen, guitar and vocals; Braunagel, drums; Mike Finnigan, organ and piano; and Hutch Hutchinson, bass. Eight of the thirteen tracks are co-written by Schnebelen with some of our best songwriters. This studio recording should establish Schnebelen as a creative force; as a songwriter, guitarist and vocalist." Making A Scene!, Richard Ludmerer

NICK SCHNEBELEN - Crazy All By Myself – Vizztone Label Group

NICK SCHNEBELEN/Crazy All By Myself: After grabbing a slew of blues awards, hitting it out of the park with his sibs out of the box and making waves with a pair of live albums, now he's ready to really up the ante. Kicking it out with the A team of white boys with the blues, he serves up hard driving bluesed up rock in a most futuristic but authentic way. This is the stuff and all your faves are in effect rounding out the sound helping him take it to the next level of the game. A real killer throughout. – Midwest Records, Chris Spector

“ Not crazy but masterful!...

*On 'Crazy All By Myself', the new studio album by Nick Schnebelen, versatility is the key factor. Schnebelen shows that, besides being a top guitarist, he's also an excellent singer, who feels at home everywhere... “ Rootstime , Eric Schuumans
